

Obituary

Charles Curtis Miller, 76, was born on February 16, 1940 in Terrell, Texas the son of Jim Henry Miller and Odessa Preston Miller.

He received his formal education from Burnett High School in Terrell, Texas. After high school Charles attended Wiley College in Marshall, Texas where he was a member of the basketball team.

Charles relocated to Topeka, Kansas over 40 years ago. After moving to Topeka he worked as a general contractor building houses, car salesman and as a counselor for the State of Kansas Boys Industrial School (BIS). After working for BIS he worked as a healthcare provider until his health failed him.

Charles was a very fashionable man and loved to wear nice suits. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed watching sports on television.

Charles passed away, Thursday, October 13, 2016. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Tracey Miller Johnson; parents, Henry and Odessa, and one sister, Annie Hale.

He is survived by three sons, Rodney Miller, Charles C. Miller (Nataasha) and Avery Miller all of Dallas, Texas; three sisters, Roberta Young of Ft. Worth, Texas, Bessie Miller of Topeka, Kansas and Addie Miller of Las Vegas, Nevada; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Love Lives On

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade
because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart,
for as long as there is memory,
they'll live on in the heart.

The Beautiful Earthly Flower

God picked his earthly flower,
the most beautiful that He could find,
And planted it up in Heaven
among the evergreen vines.

To us, this flower was special for it carried a charming scent, but God felt He needed more, though it caused our hearts to lament.

To the wonderful devoted family whose love was very strong,
Keep faith in the Lord, our Jesus for He has done no wrong.

He simply took His flower to use in a better place,
Where there's no pain or sorrow and to be free of the human race.

~ Addie Miller
